

Little Boost

For Artist/Influencer/Photographer

Company History

Little You is a Canadian Company founded in 2020.

Headquartered in Toronto, with offsite 3D printing service across Canada and United States.

A solution driven company with a unique capacity to support artists, photographers and influencers in the development and expansion of their product line with unprecedented 3D printed merchandise.

Little You application is a game-based application that uses 3D printing technology to evoke the imagination skill and the hidden artist inside every child.

Why Merchandise?!

- Engages with your fans
- Additional Revenue stream
- Help Promote your brand/artworks
- Exposure through different channels

What do we offer!

Little You is offering an Artist Collaboration Opportunity for a limited time!

Interested Artists can apply for this partnership (a $890 value!), which includes 3D model design, artist interview, blog post, social media blast, graphic ad, sample print, forums submission, and many more.

With this partnership you'll be able to design your own character and we'll take care of all the great marketing details to get your brand out there to the audience you desire. Take this as an opportunity to get your designs and passions out into the world!
